Veronica opened the meeting with the pledge.

Mary Moubray presented the Treasurer's Report. Veronica presented information from the Spring Conference.

Veronica presented the following information:

Local 635 Scholarships – we have received 2 applications which the scholarship committee will look over and decide about. The scholarship committee presently consists of the parents of the 2 scholarship recipients from last year.

The Local 635 website (www.csealocal635.org) was mentioned, and the various information that is available on it: Minutes for all meetings, Links to various websites, and contact information for the local officers, stewards and grievance reps.

There is a need for help on our committees. The list of committees were given and those interested in serving should sign up on the committee lists in the back of the room.

Partnership-promised goods: Veronica went over the outcome of the application for break room equipment. This is a benefit under our past contract and is on hold until another contract is negotiated.

Summer trainings were announced for Stewards and Grievance Reps.

Fall events were announced.

CSEA Info Tables are set up in the back of the room for members to pick up any information regarding Member Benefits, Workers Comp & Disability, Pearl Carroll Insurance

Guest Speaker, Mike Ottaviano presented Busting the Myth - touched on the Triborough Amendment and why the state is broke: Corporations avoid paying taxes.

Meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Margaret Monaco
